

Iranti-org Internship Opportunity

Position: ZwaKala Media, Advocacy & Administration Training Intern (Gauteng, Limpopo & North West)

Brief Background

Zwakala is a partnership between Iranti-org, LGBTI activists in Gauteng, North West and Limpopo provinces and the European Union in South Africa. Zwakala is a Zulu word meaning speak out, be visible, be noticeable and be recognized.

Iranti-org aims to work with LGBTI groups and individuals to:

1. Provide capacity for effective documentation & reporting through the strengthening of research and documentation skills essential for reporting human rights violations.
2. Strengthen the development of more effective advocacy skills through the use of documented human rights violations.
3. Help organizations & groups learn governance skills to encourage better organizing.

Media, Advocacy & Administration Training Intern

The Intern will:

- Gain skills in planning, implementation and organizing together with Iranti-org's media, advocacy & administration teams.
- Create a concept of an advocacy strategy tailored for the context the intern is coming from & come up with an implementation plan.
- Research & document a human rights violation from their province & area of work as well as an intervention strategy.
- Write and submit a final report on their internship.

Requirements

1. Ability to organize well.
2. Ability to write and report.
3. Ability to work independently & with a team.
4. Knowledge and use of Microsoft Word and Excel
5. A positive work attitude
6. Good interpersonal and communications skills

To Apply

Submit a CV (max 2 pages) a motivation letter (max 1 page) stating why you want this position to: nomsa@iranti-org.co.za by the 19th of March 2017 and the interviews will be scheduled for 20th – 21st March, 2017. Should you not hear from us by then consider your application unsuccessful. Persons that identify as Transgender & Intersex are strongly encouraged to apply. Do not send copies of certificates.

Start date: 27th March, 2017. This position is for 3 months