

Irantí is a media advocacy organisation, we use multimedia platforms to advance the rights of Lesbian, Transgender and Intersex persons in Africa.

We have a room available for rental if you feel that your work has synergy with us in terms of advancing human rights. We prefer to rent the space to human rights practitioners, media makers, feminists, anarchists who advocate for social justice.

The space will be furnished, it includes internet and utilities. The building is secure. The rental excludes parking which is an additional cost

Available 1 December.

Price: 4300 per month.
